

9th Annual Barbara Walker Trails Fair and Symposium

June 26, 2019.

Metro Regional Center, 600 NE Grand, Portland

Trails, Access and Inclusion: Planning and Building a System for All

12:30 to 1 p.m.

Register and networking, partner information tables in Council Chambers. Refreshments

1 p.m.

Welcome
–Metro Councilor Shirley Craddick
Regional Trails System update
–Mel Huie, Metro

1:05 p.m.

Metro Bond Measure update
–Metro Council President Lynn Peterson

1:15 p.m.

Metro Parks and Nature racial equity, diversity and inclusion update
–Jon Blasher, Director

1:25 p.m.

Keynote: Pamela Slaughter, founder of People of Color Outdoors

1:50 p.m.

Q & A

2 p.m.

Break

2:15 p.m.

Panel: “Access and Inclusion: New Ways to Think about What a Successful Trails System Should Look Like”

- Gaylen Beatty, Metro
- Jorge Guzman, ViveNW
- Alexis Gabriel, PBOT
- Arlene Kimura, Community Activist
- Georgena Moran, Access Recreation

3:15 p.m.

Panel Q & A

3:30 p.m.

Keynote: “Urban Connectivity: Environmental Intersectionality and a Shared Imperative”
–Mychal Tetteh, PBOT and former executive director of the Community Cycling Center

3:50 p.m.

Sharing our Successes – Symposium attendees will share quick anecdotes about how they’ve been able to prioritize equity in their daily work

4 to 6 p.m.

Reception (location TBA). Finger food hosted by Metro. No host for beverages.

Register

The event is free, but registration is required.

Questions?

David Cohen, Symposium Coordinator
dcohen621@gmail.com

Mel Huie, Metro
mel.huie@oregonmetro.gov

Warren Jimenez, The Intertwine Alliance
warren@theintertwine.org