

From 10:00 a.m. until noon, come help maintain and pick up litter at this 20-acre off-road (non-motorized off-road bike park in outer East Portland).

What to Bring: Wear closed-toed shoes and weather-appropriate clothing, and bring a backpack for hands-free convenience with reusable water bottle.

What's Provided: Litter pickers, trash bags, gloves, beverages, snacks, safety vests.

Restrooms: a Portland Loo is near the check-in tent.

Address: Adjacent to the I-205 Multi-Use Path, north of the Gateway Transit Center

Parking: The Gateway Shopping Center owners (the former Fred Meyer store) is allowing participants to park in its surface lot – the one between the vacant Kohl's store and the Oregon Clinic. For those coming by vehicle or transit (rather than by bike), getting to the park requires a 10- to 15-minute (about a 1/4 mile) walk down a hill into the park (and back up the hill when you leave).
