SPECIAL EVENT

On Fire: A Conversation with John Maclean

Hosted by Doug Decker

“One of the very best writers to deal with the American West.” - Washington Post

Join the nation’s leading wildfire writer and observer, John N. Maclean, and Oregon’s former State Forester and historian, Doug Decker, at the World Forestry Center for an evening of lively conversation and unique insights on the complex relationship between fire, forests, and people.

*Drawing on a lifetime of living with fire and a long career as reporter and respected author of Fire on the Mountain, Maclean will share his sharp observations on western landscapes, wildfires, firefighting, tragedy, memory, writing, and the art of storytelling.*

Craft beer, wine, food, new friends, provocative ideas, great conversation.
